

Protecting Your Association's Future

As a responsible association leader, you understand the importance of safeguarding your organization's financial stability and reputation. Association Liability Insurance is designed to provide comprehensive coverage against the unique risks and liabilities faced by associations like yours.

Why Association Liability Insurance?

- 1. Financial Protection: In today's litigious society, associations are vulnerable to lawsuits from members, employees, and third parties. Association Liability Insurance helps cover legal defense costs, settlements, and judgments.
- 2. Reputation Management: A lawsuit or legal dispute can tarnish your association's reputation. This insurance helps you manage public relations and crisis communication expenses.
- 3. Board Members' Coverage: Ensure that your dedicated board members are protected from personal liability when making important decisions on behalf of the association.
- 4. Comprehensive Coverage: Association Liability Insurance typically includes coverage for:
 - Directors & Officers Liability [D&O]
 - Employment Practices Liability [EPLI]
 - Fiduciary Liability
- 5. Customizable Policies: Tailor your policy to meet your association's specific needs and budget

Key Benefits
